The rewards of working with the dedicated, skilled, and passionate staff and volunteers of Theatre Calgary have made my two years as Board Chair some of the best years of my life. I am confident that our theatre is in good hands with Stafford Arima and Colleen Smith, and that it will do spectacular things with the foundation that has been built as we head into our 50th season.

CHADWICK NEWCOMBE
CHAIR, THEATRE CALGARY SOCIETY
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Calgarians continue to feel the brunt of the economic downturn during the 2016-2017 season, but despite the hardships many of us have faced, Theatre Calgary continues to inspire, entertain and offer a refuge from it all. We are immensely grateful to you, our patrons, our supporters and the Calgary community. It is because of your incredible loyalty over the past season which allowed this company to thrive in the face of such challenges.

COLLEEN A. SMITH
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Over the past five months I've had the pleasure of being inspired by our loyal patrons, supporters, the Theatre Calgary team, and the sensational artists who make Theatre Calgary a special place of creation. We are an institution that shares excellence through our art – theatre art that moves, touches and inspires, which will continue to impact our city, our province, our country, and beyond.

STAFFORD ARIMA
ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

"The real test of a stage adaptation is not whether the play can match the book, but whether it can be valued for its own artistic merits. I feel confident that Theatre Calgary and A.C.T. will ace this test."

CITADEL THEATRE

SPECIAL PRODUCTIONS

In 2016/17, we continued to expand our artistic vision from partnerships, to our emerging artist program, to a new second stage.

The season was opened by a Calgary summertime tradition, Shakespeare by the Bow™, which was presented on the banks of the Bow River in Prince's Island Park to more than 11,000 audience members.

In January, we once again partnered with One Yellow Rabbit

Performance Theatre to present a new and thrilling piece of theatre for the much-loved High Performance Rodeo. Songs of Resilience by the Queer Songbook Orchestra was a one-night-only special event celebrating the unique stories of the LGBTQ+ community set to a century's worth of popular song. Sexy and sweet, this presentation enabled Theatre Calgary to welcome new patrons to our theatre as well as embrace our perpetual supporters.

2016/17 also marked the launch of a new program, tc UP CLOSE, meant to expand our artistic playbill to include big stories in intimate spaces. tc Up CLOSE opened on Valentine's Day with David Hare's Skylight, a story of two lovers reuniting one final time. Directed by Valerie Planche, and presented in the 150 seat Arts Common's Engineered Air Theatre, Skylight delighted audiences with just how close they were to the performance.

Theatre Calgary announces Stafford Arima as new Artistic Director

On March 13, 2017, our board of directors were thrilled to announce Stafford Arima as the new Artistic Director of Theatre Calgary. Mr. Arima has become the 12th Artistic Director in our theatre's 49-year history

"It is with great honour and immeasurable excitement that I begin this new adventure as artistic director at Theatre Calgary. This journey to Calgary is a homecoming for me. After two decades based in New York City, my return to Canada gives me immense pride.

I am eager to participate in Calgary's fervent artistic spirit, and continue the tradition of bold storytelling and impactful theatre that moves, touches, and inspires this city's audiences.

As Calgary knows, this theatre has achieved immense success under the former artistic leadership of Dennis Garnhum. I am thrilled to oversee Interim Artistic Director Shari Wattling's recently announced season, marking our 50th Anniversary, and partner with the board of directors, and the entire staff and crew, to present these eclectic works to our audiences. I am anxious to begin the process of guiding the company through its next phase of growth. Our theatre will forever be a home that reflects the communities, the country, and the world we live in – a diverse, complex, stimulating world."

ARTISTIC DEVELOPMENT

Theatre Calgary is one of the most recognizable arts and cultural institutions in Calgary. For 49 years, we have focused our energy on providing our community with quality classic and contemporary productions, featuring the best talent on our mainstage. Today, we are Calgary's largest professional theatre company and a proud supporter of local emerging artists.

FUSE 2017

Theatre Calgary believes in developing new work, and this year, FUSE: The Enbridge New Play Development Program commissioned and provided workshop development for two new plays by Canadian playwrights. Honour Beat, by Tara Beagan, and Vital Spirits by Meg Braem were both presented in staged public readings in May, 2017.

STEPHEN HAIR EMERGING ACTOR AWARD

The Stephen Hair Emerging Actor Award, established in 2007, honours the distinguished career of actor Stephen Hair, including 23 consecutive years in the role of Ebenezer Scrooge in our production of A Christmas Carol. This $2,500 award is granted annually to assist emerging actors from the Calgary region in advancing their professional careers, and the training necessary to become an actor in a highly competitive international environment. Eligible recipients are recent graduates from post-secondary studies in theatre who have demonstrated a significant commitment to the pursuit of a professional career as an actor.

In 2016, Theatre Calgary awarded the 10th Annual Stephen Hair Emerging Actor Award to Jesse Lynn Anderson, a recent graduate of the Rosebud School of Arts, who appeared as Nell in The Crucible, and was a former participant in the Shakespeare by the Bow™ program, in The Comedy of Errors.

JESSE LYNN ANDERSON AND STEPHEN HAIR

SHAKESPEARE BY THE BOW™

HAMLET

Our 2016 Shakespeare by the Bow™ (SBTB) production of Hamlet played to record crowds. The final attendance peaked at 11,494 patrons, the largest overall crowd since Theatre Calgary first became involved with this emerging artist program in 2012.

While attendance numbers were at an all time high, the average donation per person was down by approximately $1.56. The weather also greatly affected confidence in attendance with rain, lightning, and hail, causing the cancellation of 14 shows throughout the summer.

Theatre Calgary is committed to offering programming that enriches lives and makes a difference in our community. SBTB is a Pay-What-You-Will performance that increases accessibility for all Calgarians to experience live theatre. Proceeds collected are contributed back into the SBTB program, and further professional development for emerging artists.

A GHOST STORY

Theatre Calgary was also able to showcase our work and reach more Calgarians as we partnered with the Calgary Municipal Land Corporation (CMLC) for a special evening SBTB performance entitled Hamlet – A Ghost Story, on St. Patrick's Island. From July 19 to 24, this free, roving production toured the island and gave audiences a glimpse into the lives of the first family of Denmark.

“St. Patrick’s Island is a regional park space that we have worked very hard to revitalize. It’s incredibly important for us to program meaningful experiences for all Calgarians, and having these emerging artists stage an original event is a unique way for us to showcase the island.”

SUSAN VERES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, STRATEGY & BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT FOR CMLC

I WAS AMAZED BY THE PRODUCTION AND THE QUALITY. I WAS VERY PLEASED TO SEE THAT IN CALGARY WE HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO SEE TALENTED EMERGING ARTISTS.

I really enjoyed the performance - loved the gender flipped casting, and how it let the ladies show off their fencing chops.

WE ARE NEW TO CALGARY AND SHAKESPEARE BY THE BOW WAS A LOVELY WAY TO BE INTRODUCED TO CULTURAL EVENTS IN THE AREA.

OUR COMMUNITY

As we approach our 50th season in 2017/18, part of our strategic vision is to create an opportunity for all Calgarians to experience live theatre, and to deepen and expand the impact of our work, on and off the stage, throughout our city's diverse communities.

We offer accessible and stimulating artistic learning opportunities to supplement our theatre experiences for community members of all ages. Theatre Calgary is committed to making live theatre accessible through a number of affordable initiatives, such as Student Matinees, Senior Saturdays, Pay-What-You-Can performances, and Rush Ticket Tuesdays. In addition, we are also pleased to support fellow charities and non-profit organizations across Southern Alberta.

LEARNING & ENGAGEMENT

The 2016/17 season saw the creation of a new department, Learning and Engagement. The main goal this department is to build new audiences through diverse, interactive programming, and barrier-free community engagement initiatives throughout the city.

This past season, we partnered with a wide range of local organizations, including the YWCA of Calgary, hedkandi, Eveline Charles Academy, Toonz Jukeboxes, Jolly Goods Candy Stop, The Fairmont Palliser, Sunridge Mall, Frozen Memories, Canadian Women for Women in Afghanistan, Calgary Immigrant Education Society, Centre for Newcomers, Calgary Catholic Immigration Society, Alberta Network of Immigrant Women, Calgary Ismaili Muslim Community, Afghan Canadian Association of Calgary, Canadian Cultural Mosaic Foundation, Calgary Public Library, and The Institute for Canadian Citizenship.

Some of the key community engagement highlights from this past year include: the New Canadians Initiative, which allowed nearly 1000 new Canadian citizens to see a show at Theatre Calgary, a complimentary pop-up hair salon at centre court in Sunridge Mall and inviting a local British candy store into our lobby during The Audience.

A Thousand Splendid Suns included two very special projects, the first was a project called Calgary's Women of Hope (women who were newcomers to Calgary), which featured their stories throughout our lobby. The second was a collaboration with Canadian Women for Women in Afghanistan by showcasing their artwork in the lobby, which led to over $12,000 raised by our audiences to directly support women in Afghanistan.

Additionally, we were able to provide affordable pricing options through our Sun Life Library partnership, Rush Ticket Tuesday, and Pay-What-You-Can matinees, allowing greater accessibility for all Calgarians to the arts.

PUNJABI BRIDE BY RAMAN GILL, PART OF THE LOBBY DISPLAY FOR A THOUSAND SPLENDID SUNS

Our Industry Night series covered a wide range of topics such as diversity in theatre, musical theatre development, a networking evening for emerging theatre companies, and grant writing best practices. Our Young Artists Club and Teachers Club had strong numbers, and our interactive lobby displays saw record participation from our audiences.

FUND DEVELOPMENT

In a time where Calgary is still feeling the “belt-tightening” of a tough economy, Theatre Calgary worked hard to maintain our support from the community at large, individuals, and corporations. Support from our individual donors and foundations both met our goals and exceeded them, and our gala had record attendance. While we mirrored the general trend within Calgary, seeing our corporate support down slightly from our previous season, we were extremely thankful for those that were able to continue with their support for our programs in these challenging times. Due to our continuing work towards broadening the spectrum of revenue streams, we were able to finish the season in a strong position.

A NIGHT WITH THE STARS TAKES A FINAL BOW

After 22 years, Theatre Calgary’s signature fundraising gala, A Night with the Stars, took its final curtain call in 2017. For this final gala, our guests were transported to Buckingham Palace for the evening, to tie in with our production of The Audience. After walking the red carpet they were treated to photos with the Queen, signature cocktails, raffles, and a silent and live auction, against a backdrop of the live broadcast of the Academy Awards. Attendance for the gala was at an all-time high, indicating the incredible levels of support Theatre Calgary has in the community. It was wonderful to end this chapter in such a positive way, we look forward to revealing our new event in the future.

THEATRE CALGARY’S BOARD ALUMNI

During the planning of our 50th season, much discussion was held within Theatre Calgary about acknowledging and honouring all those that had helped us get to where we are today. After research and consultation with key personnel and volunteers, an official Theatre Calgary Board Alumni was launched in the fall of 2016. To date, over 50 past board members have formally joined the alumni, and Theatre Calgary hosted two exclusive events for them this past season.

It was a remarkable to meet with so many key people in our journey, many of whom gave so tirelessly of their time and talents to always keep us moving forward. We look forward to the Board Alumni continuing to grow, and becoming an integral part of the Theatre Calgary family moving into our next 50 years.

SAN FRANCISCO

In February 2017, Theatre Calgary and some of our Artistic Champions flew to San Francisco to support our co-production of A Thousand Splendid Suns with The American Conservatory Theater (A.C.T.). There was a great deal of excitement surrounding this trip, with our Artistic Champions being amongst the first to see this newly-adapted work, along with the added attraction of Calgary's Haysam Kadri making his US debut. The weekend included a cocktail reception with the Canadian Consul at his home in San Francisco, a tour of A.C.T.'s second stage, a matinee performance of the production followed by an "in-studio" conversation with the cast of the show and A.C.T.'s Artistic Director (also the director of this production) Carey Perloff. Wrapping the trip up was an evening tour of the city, including watching the Chinese New Year's Luna parade, and dinner at the highly reargarded Slanted Door Restaurant, overlooking the bay.

ARTISTIC CHAMPIONS AT A.C.T. IN SAN FRANCISCO

DINNER ON STAGE

When we launched our Artistic Champions program three years ago, we introduced one of our most coveted events for our donors, Dinner On Stage. Every year our Director's and Producer's Circle are whisked off to a new destination on stage, to enjoy a dinner with not only our Artistic and Executive Director, but the cast members of a current production. This past season, guests took the same journey as Bobby Child in Crazy for You, starting their evening with cocktails in a New York Show Girls' dressing room under our stage, before joining six of the cast and dining in Deadrock on a sumptuous feast provided by Rouge here in Calgary. It was a special evening with entertainment provided by Allison Lynch's jazz trio.
